

3. RA Law “on State Statistics”

On April 4, 2000 the National Assembly of RA adopted the RA Law “On State Statistics”, that was signed by the President of RA on 26 April 2000. The Law has been published and entered into force since 10 May 2000. The Law has been published and entered into force since 10 May 2000. It determines the order of organization of state statistics in the Republic of Armenia and regulates the relations regarding the collection, processing, accumulation, summarising and keeping, as well as the analysis, exchange of statistical data related to the social and economic processes in the Republic, population and spheres of its activities, and the presentation (publication) of statistical information.