

10. RA 2011 POPULATION CENSUS RESULTS PUBLICATION

For the first time the preliminary data of RA 2011 Population Census were announced during the press conference held on 7 February 2012, during of which the information on de jure population enumerated during the Population Census was presented.

Afterwards, the preliminary indicators of de jure and de facto population by RA marzes and Yerevan city were published on 31 October 2012 in the monthly informational report on the "Socio-Economic Situation of RA in January-September 2012".

The finalized, summarized data on the number of RA de facto and de jure population and the preliminary indicators on educational level, marital status of de jure population had been published on 31 October 2012 in the monthly informational report on the "Socio- Economic Situation of RA in January-December 2012".

The booklet of RA 2011 Population Census preliminary results has been published in February 2013.

The information on RA de facto and de jure population number, women fertility level, main sources of subsistence means, population distribution by nationality and age groups, religion, native language, country of citizenship, place of birth was published on 30 April 2013 in the monthly informational report on the "Socio - Economic Situation of RA in January-March 2013" and the information on the number of de facto and de jure population of RA urban and rural communities by sex was published on 31 July 2013 in the edition for January-July 2013 of the same report.

